The Indian as He Is.

A writer in the New York Tribun tells the truth about the "Poor Indian" when he says that one of the great disadvantages he has labored under is "his picturesqueness." We have been taught by Cooper, the novelist, to look upon the "noble savage" as a natural edition of all the origina cardinal virtues. His courage, hi love of horse flesh have been sung, sculptured and painted, while his cruelty to the helpless and ferocity to m foes, indiscriminate sentim tal relations, chronic desire to stea horses and drink whisky have been kept carefully in the background. The "red man" is a fine subject for a poem or a water color, but in reality is as coarse and dirty as he treheherous, cruel and given to smell-The fig leaves of romance fice to hide his moral nakedness. Mr. Butler gave as his reason for the amendment that under the 5th section of said bill all the gold in the country might be borrowed by the treasury and seventy-five per cent of amount received in redeeming five-two atless at par, although at the same time.

THIS Gim runs light on the team, makes a I good sample, and will pick more lint from the same amount of seed cotton, and in less time, than any other Gim. It does not break the roil nor chence; is simple in its construction, and not liable to get out of order. The attention of planters is called to the Pecler Gin, made by Mr. Pratt expressly for the Pecler, Mounta, and other varieties of long staple cotton.

Mr. Pratt has made upward of 17,600 Gins greenbacks might be te , twenty or thirty per cent below par. Amendment rejected, 84 to 108.

Mr. Griswold moved to strike out said section. Rejected. Mr. Cox moved to add the follow-Much has been said in Northern ing proviso, that nothing in said act papers of the insecurity of life and property in Northern Alabama, and legal tender act of 1862. > The Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel earns from a conductor on the South Carolina railroad, and a resident of Charleston, that a planter near Midway, S. C., about seventy miles from Augusta, has cultivated his entire am. farm this year, so far, at least, as plowing was concerned, with an alli-gator. The animal is an unusually large one-weighs 350 pounds-and perfectly docile and domesticated. He is said to work splendidly in plow harness, and is far superior to mules or horses. This is a kink which the Floridians and South Georgians and Alabamians can try to their hearts' content. It would be a paying business to train alligators for service, Wouldn't it be huge? Of course the paper or the informant couldn't have meant an "alligator plow," or a sell

PRATT'S Southern-Made Cotton Gin.

Pecier trin, made by Mr. Fratt expressly for the Pecier, Moins, and other varieties of long staple cotton.

Mr. Pratt has made opward of 17,800 Gins for india, Egypt, Mexico, Brazil and the Southern States, which have given general satisfaction. His Gin took the 850 premium and diploma at the Shelby County Fair at Memphis, and the $35 premium at the Georgia State Fair, at Macon.

It is a good rule to try all things, and hold fast to what has been approved and answers the purpose for which it is made. This is claimed for Pr. 12's Gin, and admitted by practical planters who have used it.

Orders for Gins, from 40 to 80 asws, and Gum Bands, at New York factory prices, promptly filled. Gins epaired by a skilfred Ginwright. Address, Memphis, Tenn., care of Farring-on & Howell, 205 Front strees,
